SPECIAL GERANIUM OFFER: Any 9 for $1.50, Post Paid

Sweet-Scented Geraniums

ROSE: The famous sweet rose-scented Geranium, very fragrant. 15c each.
LOOK at the glorious hedge of roses in the reproduction above. Picture it in your own yard. You’ll surely want this selection. The harvest of blooms they’ll give the first year is worth many times their small cost. It’s a combination of Teas and Hybrid Teas, that, for general planting, excel all other types of roses. All will bloom this year—the two year size, of course, yielding a greater profusion of flowers. These wonderful roses are noted for their exquisite coloring and delightful fragrance. And they’re so sturdy you can’t help but succeed with them.

DIXIE: Salmon pink, a beauty.
CHARMER: Silvery pink exquisite bud.
MRS. CHAS. LAMPOUGH: Lemon yellow. Strong grower.
RHEA REID: Velvety red. Hardy and fine.
MELODY: Splendid yellow. Pleasing shade.
CHAS. K. DOUGLAS: Brightest red. (See color plate.)
MADAM BUTTERFLY: Pink, apricot and cream. Very popular.
HONEYMOON: Chrome yellow. Everybody’s favorite.
PREMIER: Rosy red. A charming rose.

The Most Attractive of All Bedding Plants

America (A Splendid New Dwarf Salvia): The grandest addition to our list of bedding plants. It forms a compact bush, completely covered with rich scarlet flowers.

Salvia Scarlet Splendens: Another grand addition to our list of bedding plants. Tall grower for center of beds.
Calycanthus Floridus
(Carolina Allspice or Strawberry Shrub)
A most desirable shrub. The wood is fragrant; flowers of a rare chocolate color.
Fine plants, 50 cents each.

Deutzias
Those fine habit, luxuriant foliage and profusion of bloom render them among the best shrubs. They flower the latter part of June.
DEUTZIA GRACILIS: Dwarf habit. Covers itself with pure white bell shaped flowers. 25 cents each.
DEUTZIA PRIDE OF ROCHESTER: Large double white flowers. 35 cents each.

Forsythia (Gold Shrub)
GOLDEN BELLS (Virdissima): This splendid shrub lights up your garden with golden massed of yellow, early in the Spring before leaves appear. The back of the young twigs is bright green. 35 cents each.
FORTUNI: Erect branches, and handsome, broad dark green leaves. Fine for individual specimens. 35 cents each.

Bush Honeysuckle
HONEYSUCKLE, TARTARIAN (Rosea): The favorite, old fashioned bush Honeysuckle, with slender upright branches. Pink flowers, followed with red berries. 40 cents each.

Red Snowberry
(INDIAN Currant) (Symphoricarpos Vulgaris). Similar to the Snowberry except that its fruits are red, and that the smaller red berries cluster in thick rows along the weight-down stems. 25 cents each.

Snowberry
SYMPHORICARPOS RACEMOSUS: An excellent shrub for massing under trees and in shaded places, as well as in full sunlight. Very ornamental in the Fall; has a small white or pinkish flower, succeeded by showy white berries. 30c each.

Spirea
SPIREA ANTHONY WATERER: A low compact bush covered nearly the whole growing season with large umbels of deep rosy red flowers which measure six inches across, and is seldom out of flower. One-year plants, 20 cents each; 3 for 35 cents. Strong two-year-old plants, 50 cents each.
SPIREA VAN HOUTTE (Bridal Wreath): With us in May and early in June the plant is completely covered with a mass of large white flowers. Named the "Bridal Wreath" on account of its long graceful sprays of pure white. One-year, 20 cents each; 3 for 35 cents; strong plants, 40 cents each.

Pink Flowering Almond
ALMOND: Early spring flowering shrubs, early in full bloom before the leaves appear, with beautiful, double flowers of rose, smudging right to the twigs. 60 cents each.

Bechtel Flowering Crab Malus
IOENSIS PLENA (Bechtel Crab): Double pink flowers like small clustered roses, 60 cents each. The flowering Crab has few rivals among gorgeous Spring flowering trees and shrubs.

Golden Elder
Probably the most showy golden-leaved shrub. Foliage bright yellow with a profusion of berries. Gives a tone of contrast to any shubbery planting. 50 cents each.

Weigelia
AMARILIS: Trumpeter-shaped flowers that almost hide the plant. Very desirable for the border or for grouping, and as specimens on the lawn. Color light pink.
FVA RATIKHE: A charming Weigelia flower, brilliant crimson. A beautiful, distinct, clear shade. 60 cents each.
